Why Padel at the Bourne?

The current Pandemic has accelerated the trend for people to work from home. This has provided additional opportunity to play sports, such as tennis, during what would have been termed off-peak times resulting in a very high court usage. Even before this new trend the Management Committee had been considering how we could add additional facilities into the Club to enable us to increase membership revenue without overloading existing courts. Adding tennis courts would require a complete reconfiguration of the Club at substantial cost but a Padel court can fit into the existing grounds with minimal disruption.

Padel is the fastest growing racket sport in the world and the LTA has recently been named as the governing body for the sport. There are less than 100 Padel courts in the UK currently but there are plans to install many more over the next 3 years. With no other courts within 25 miles we have the opportunity to be at the forefront of this and enhance our reputation and tradition for providing excellent racket facilities.

We have calculated that this project will provide the Club with significant revenue and firmly believe that members will enjoy playing this sport which brings players of all abilities together.

This is a rough guide to the position of the court

Basic Padel Rules

Format: Padel is played in a doubles format

Scoring: Padel uses the same scoring system as tennis

Volleys: As per tennis, you can volley the ball at anytime apart from the return of serve

Serving:

- You start from the right hand side, with an underarm serve, which must go into the cross court box
- The server must bounce the ball before serving, and connect with the ball below waist height
- The server must keep at least one foot on the floor when serving, the feet must not touch or cross the serving line
- If the ball hits the net and lands in, a let is called; if the ball lands in the box and hits the wire fence it's a fault
- If the ball lands in the box and hits the side wall or back wall, the ball must be played as in
- You have two serves as per tennis

Padel Cont.

What's in and what's out in Padel:

- The lines on the court are only in play for the serve, if the serve hits the line it's a valid serve
- Any player is permitted to play the ball off any of the walls on their side of the court
- The ball must bounce on the opponents side before hitting the wall or wire fence
- You can play the ball off the walls, like you would in squash

- If the balls bounces twice on your side, you lose the point
- If the ball strikes either player, the point is lost
- If the ball hits the walls or wire fencing without bouncing first, you lose the point

Padel coaching at the Bourne

We are delighted to announce James Cooles will be heading up the Padel coaching at the Club.

James is, and will remain, part of the tennis coaching team, but James will also head up the coaching side of Padel for the Bourne Academy. James is enthusiastic and looking forward to the new challenge. For more information about what is on offer at the Bourne please speak to James.

Our founder Paul Regan, has worked in the global tennis industry for more than 25 years and has a vast network of clubs and coaches gained through his various high profile positions held within British Tennis. Paul has followed the growth of the padel industry across mainland Europe for a number of years and has developed PRO Padel Courts to capitalise on its introduction to the UK market and its impending growth.

QUALITY is what PRO Padel Courts is all about. Quality products, Quality installation and Quality experience and customer service. If you are looking for the cheapest padel courts on the market then maybe we are not for you, but if you are looking for the best padel courts on the market. Unlike some of our competitors, we are based in the UK and can provide instant information and customer service

Drop Shot is one of the biggest brands in Padel and they are continuing to develop and grow with innovative products. They offer a comprehensive selection of rackets and other Padel equipment including shoes, bags, clothing, balls, and other accessories. Drop Shot are passionate about providing equipment for all, offering a wide range of rackets for everyone from beginners to experts.

Drop Shot sponsor and work closely with Juan Martin Diaz (JMD), a 12 times world number 1 champion and still one of the top players internationally. They also sponsor Lucas Campagnolo who is an up-and-coming top 20 player on the World Padel Tour (WPT).

However, Drop Shot's success and global presence would not be possible without the support of clubs and clients internationally, the efforts and daily work of which are the cornerstones of their philosophy.

Drop Shot complies with the requirements of environmental responsibility, recycling containers and using suitable materials for consumption. Our factories are certified by the EU and have passed all controls and inspections.

Drop Shot UK will be working alongside the Bourne club, providing high class Padel equipment, at reduced costs benefiting the members.

The club will have a selection of demo rackets for people to try the game of Padel and look at which rackets they would like to purchase. There will be a selection of rackets for all levels and prices, all provided by Drop Shot UK.

The club will also sell two types of Drop Shot Padel ball, a training ball and a tournament ball, the training ball will last longer, great for all abilities and last longer in the wet. The Tournament ball is for the better players looking to play more competitive Padel.

Please enquire via the coaches or office staff if you wish to try a racket out or purchase balls
